Nancy Wynne Talks of the Engagement of Miss Fox and Dr. Dorrance, of This City—She Hears of an Accident to Mrs. Craig Biddle

THE engagement of Emily B. Fox and Dr. Morris Dorrance was announced yesterday and every one who knows them both is so glad to hear of it. Miss Fox, who was Miss Margaret Fox, is a sister of Mrs. Arthur Baird, and is a sister of Mrs. George Fox, who was Miss Margaret Fox. Mrs. Thomas Stalker Downing, of Lancaster; George Fox and Joe Fox, another sister, formerly Rita Fox, married a Mr. Bird, but I do not recollect his first name.

Emily is attractive and exceedingly well liked. She is tall and rather fair. She and her mother live out in Chestnut Hill on Credefeld street. The other Emily Fox, who also lived on Credefeld street, and is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph Mickle Fox, was married last week to Ned Chester, Dr. Dorrance is a son of Mrs. John Dorrance, of 2025 Walnut street, and is a brother of Jack and Arthur Dorrance and of Alice Dorrance Hood and Winifred. Dr. Dorrance served a naval officer. Dr. Dorrance has been serving overseas and did splendid work during the war. No date has been set for the wedding.

I HEAR that Mrs. Craig Biddle has had an unpleasant accident which is not dangerous, but is painful and will compel her to stay in bed for some days, if not weeks. She was walking on the lawn of her place in New York and stepped on a small hole in the ground, breaking one of the small bones. I don't think there is a more painful place to hurt, though, of course, I suppose in big bones, but I remember spraining a small bone in the foot once and the pain was simply excruciating.

Young Laura Biddle, Mrs. Biddle's daughter, is about sixteen now and is an extraordinarily good-looking girl. In a year or two we shall be going to meet her at her tea, as I suppose she will be presented here as well as in Newport.

SPREADING of teas, there seems to have been a misunderstanding among us all about some of the teas this year because several dates which were first announced have been changed. As for instance, the Heckschers' tea for Virginia. At first the date chosen was Saturday of this week. Later they decided to have the tea on Saturday, October 15, and the cards are now out for that date.

Virginia, as I think I told you yesterday, is the daughter of the Ledyard Heckschers, of Brandywine, and is a charming little girl. Her mother was Miss Ethel Hart, a sister of Mr. Thomas Hart, who married Margaret Smith.

Then, too, I heard several people speaking of going out to Virginia Smith's tea in Wynnewood next Saturday. Now it happens the tea is not on Saturday but will be on Friday, September 23, from 4 until 6:30 o'clock. And incidentally for those of us who are going out by train instead of by car it is nice to know that Mr. Smith has arranged to have buses meet trains from Broad Street Station and from the house back again to Wynnewood between those hours.

So now, I think, we have it all clear. Two teas this week: Friday, Virginia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dearborn Smith; Saturday, Virginia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Struthers Ellis, and Saturday October 15, Virginia Heckschers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Heckschers, will be introduced instead of on September 24.

WHAT a beautiful time Marian Dunlap Behn and her husband have had since their wedding last May. They went down to Cuba, you know, and I hear were entertained extensively there. They are returning this week to New York and will occupy an apartment there for the winter. I hear that Marian is more stately and beautiful than ever and her husband is a most striking looking woman.

Her wedding was one of the prettiest of the last spring. I do not think I have ever seen such a fairy bride. For though she is not small nor very light her gown was fashioned of such lace and her veil was so airy and exquisitely arranged. I felt as if fairy fingers must have been around somewhere when that bride was being attired for her nuptials.

SPREADING of weddings, a little bird told me something very exciting just recently. I think we'll hear about it in a couple of weeks if not perhaps a little sooner. I only hope this one of some delightful sisters will marry nearer home, but you know I did not hear his name, though I heard her and she's sweet. Time alone will tell who the happy man is, but he knows and she knows now, and something tells me her family knows, though I am not sure.

NANCY WYNNE.
